Hawaii Dental Service (HDS) Promotes Three Employees

Honolulu, Hawaii — Hawaii Dental Service, the state's leading dental benefits plan, recently announced the promotions of three of its employees. Candice Kaneshi has been promoted to billing manager; Kathyleen Lacambra to claims manager; and Stephanie Liu-Antonio to community impact manager.

Candice Kaneshi joined HDS as a billing representative in 2020 and was promoted to billing coordinator in 2022. As billing manager, she will oversee all billing department functions. The Pearl City resident received a Bachelor of Business Administration in accounting from the University of Hawaii at Manoa.

Kathyleen Lacambra joined HDS as a claims processor III in March 2008 and was promoted to claims processor IV in 2019. As claims manager, she is responsible for the efficient and effective operations of the claims department. Lacambra, a Kalihi resident, earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in communications from Computronix College in Dagupan City, Philippines, and received training as a medical office administration and medical coding specialist from Hawaii Business College.

Stephanie Liu-Antonio joined HDS in 2001 as a professional relations representative, a position she held for 18 years. In 2019, she was then named a business development consultant. She later joined the HDS Foundation as program administrator in June 2021.

About Hawaii Dental Service

Hawaii Dental Service (HDS) is the leading dental benefits provider in the state, serving over one million residents throughout Hawaii, Guam, and Saipan. It has the largest network of dentists, with more than 95 percent of Hawaii's licensed, practicing dentists participating with HDS.

As a nonprofit founded in Hawaii in 1962, HDS is committed to making quality oral health care affordable and accessible. Employers who offer HDS dental plans to their employees represent Hawaii's diverse industries, companies, unions, associations, and nonprofit organizations. HDS also offers dental plans for individuals and families. HDS has been a part of Delta Dental, the nation's largest and most experienced dental insurance benefits provider, since 1966. This affiliation gives members access to a nationwide network of participating dentists.
